

Emerging Practitioners in Philanthropy
The next generation of grantmakers invites you to the

CHAPTER LEADER GATHERING

WHAT

A National skills-training and network-building retreat for EPIP chapter leaders. This retreat will offer skills development that individuals can apply to their work and their chapters. It will help us weave together a more powerful community and movement of emerging leaders in philanthropy.

WHEN

Wednesday, July 22 - Friday, July 24, 2009

WHERE

Detroit, MI
Wayne State University [Meeting] / Inn at Ferry Street [Housing]

WHY

If you serve on a leadership committee of a prospective or recognized EPIP chapter, or if you wish to start a new EPIP chapter in your community, this gathering is the place to be this summer!

WHO

Leaders of established and prospective EPIP Chapters. (Every EPIP chapter is asked to have a delegation of at least two people).

HOW

Registration is available on the EPIP website at <http://www.epip.org/clg09.php>. Registration is on a sliding scale from $150 - $500. A one-day rate is available at $75.

EPIP thanks The Kresge Foundation for providing the lead sponsorship for this event.
